

This is a Permanent, Full-time position.

CATEGORY: Production

CITY, PROVINCE: Winnipeg, Manitoba

POSITION: Head Carpenter

START DATE: ASAP

Open call for applications!

The Royal Winnipeg Ballet is currently looking for an individual experienced in theater production and carpentry to fill the role of Head Carpenter. If you are interested in showcasing your skills while working for a world-renowned touring performing arts company, we encourage you to apply!

The Head Carpenter oversees the technical integrity of all scenic and support elements for RWB events/productions whether in-town and on tour. While working closely with the Director of Production and the Production Manager with tour organization and planning, the Head Carpenter also leads the touring and local crews on safe and effective installation, rigging, and operation of productions.

Alongside the Production Manager, you work to manage and maintain the RWB warehouse and shop, and associated inventories. In this position, you function as a hands-on department head and crew chief, working closely with stage management and artistic staff to disseminate production information, changes, and call times to production crew.

If you are a driven team player with strategic time management, a detail-oriented mind, and are flexible to shifting priorities, this position is for you! Ideal candidates will enjoy leading projects, thinking outside the box, and are knowledgeable in safe stage practices.

Please see the attached posting for a more detailed explanation of responsibilities and qualifications:
